Price

SoldItem Reference: SA335576*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

Impressive pair of antique brown leather armchairs, with mahogany legs. These chairs are about 100 years old, dating to around the 1900-10 period & are in good condition. They have just been re-upholstered in top quality leather & then hand coloured by a leather expert. The cushions are completely new inside & filled with feather innards. They are very plump at the moment. I think they will flatten a bit eventually, or we could take out some feathers if you find them too high. These armchairs have hump backs, scroll over arms, hand tacking & the legs have a blind fretwork feature. Width - 29.5", 75 cm Depth - 27.5", 70 cm Height - 36.6", 93 cm Seat height - 18", 46 cm
