Description

Stunning Antique Queen Anne style burr walnut cocktail cabinet in lovely original condition. This cabinet is fantastic quality, with stunning hand carving on the arched top, between the legs, plus it has hairy paw feet. The top cupboards have burr walnut panels & have the original etched brass escutcheons. The inside is sycamore lined, with a mirrored back & a pull out slide for serving drinks on. There is also a light inside with a wire & plug attached, but this will need to be thoroughly checked before use for safety reasons. The drawers too are burr walnut, with original brass handles & locks. The top sections lifts off from the base for easier transportation. There are lots of fine details to see on this cabinet, so please take a close up look at all of the images. It has extremely fine carving & I would say it dates to around the 1920-30's period. Width - 42", 107", Depth - 21", 54 cm Height - 73", 185 cm
