Description

Antique .800 silver Doxa stem winding pocket watch. The watch has a Swiss stem winding movement which is ticking away nicely and the time keeping is within 2 - 3 minutes over a 24 hour period. The nicely jewelled movement is signed Doxa. The watch measures 51.7 mm diameter excluding the winding crown. The silver case has continental .800 silver marks and is signed Doxa. The case has a rose gold wash on the sides and bezel. The case has light surface marks from use and light wear to the gold wash but overall it is in nice condition for a watch of its age. The inner dust cover is inscribed Medaille D'or Milan 1906, Doxa, Hors Concours, Liege-1905. The watch lens is glass and is in nice condition; there is some green to the edge in bottom right quadrant. The dial is signed Doxa and is in nice condition with only slight marking to the centre. The hour and minute hands are later although the correct style for the watch. PRICE INCLUDES WORLDWIDE POSTAGE
