Description

Two decorative Victorian wooden foundry patterns, circa 1900, stained and polished in the early 20th Century. One bearing alloy makers letters for Robert Hall & Sons, Bury, England (some of the letters are missing). Obviously these would have shown in the cast. Robert Hall & Sons were specialist manufacturers for the textile weaving industry. They made power looms for weaving fibres of all descriptions and at one point had over 500 employees. 55cm & 56cm diam.
