Description

An elegant and excellent quality French armoire. c1870. This elegant armoire is made of mahogany, having lovely figured mahogany panels, to the serpentine shaped cornice, and to the drawer front and base, making it most attractive. Below the lovely curvy serpentine cornice, is a large and wide single door, fronted with the original mirror. The door, having the original working lock with key, opens to reveal a large hanging space, with a metal hanging rail. To the base is a single drawer, with pretty turned handles and fronted with beautifully figured flame mahogany. The colour of the mahogany, has developed into a lovely warm patina. In excellent original antique condition, with expected general signs of age and use. There is a historical shrinkage line to the left side, shown in the pictures, this has been expertly, historically filled. The wardrobe literally flat-packs, making moving and transporting very easy. Easy to assemble. Has large iron bolts, making it very strong and robust. Very solid sturdy and strong. The dimensions are taken at highest, widest, deepest points. Height-233cm. Width-114cm including cornice. Width of main body-103cm Depth-5...
