Description

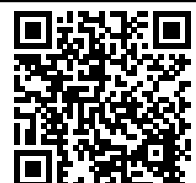

Circa 1910-1940 a small decorative and heavy marble table lamp measuring 20.5cm up to the top of the chrome lamp holder, or 18cm to the top of the lamp, and the base is 6cm square. It will take any standard UK lightbulb and lampshade. It has a rope effect around the top and base of body of the lamp and has been very well made. It would suit any small shelf /table or recess needing a light. It has been rewired to UK specifications using white cable to match the marble and fitted with a new chrome lamp holder. Postage and Package within the UK mainland only has been included in the price, but for remote parts or abroad, please contact us for a delivery quote.
