Description

A lovely quality large Artist's Watercolour box, made from exotic Rosewood with Boxwood edging to the lid and Walnut cross-banding and Walnut inlay. The box opens to reveal a wonderful red coloured embossed leather panel to the interior of the lid, incorporating the signature of the manufacturer, J. Newman. The box is beautifully fitted with a removable pen tray with one glass inkwell (originally probably two); a lidded compartment for tubes of paint, a glass water bowl, the metal tin opening both top and bottom containing chalks and charcoals; the delightful collection of paints marked Newman's, Soho Square and others (Winsor & Newton). There is a pull out drawer below, accessed by the flush brass inlaid campaign style handle, the interior of the drawer accommodating a ceramic palette signed Winsor & Newton, London. A good early example in excellent used condition dating to c.1830, nearly 200 years old. Complete with a working (replacement) key. 12" x 9" x 3 3/4" tall. Item ID: 36568
