Aelbert Cuyp was one of the leading Dutch landscape painters of the Dutch Golden Age in the 17th century. He is especially known for his large views of the Dutch countryside in early morning or late afternoon light. Aelbert Cuyp was born on October 20, 1620, and died November 15, 1691. His family were all artists, with his uncle Benjamin and grandfather Gerrit being stained glass cartoon designers. Jacob Gerritsz Cuyp, his father, was a portraitist.
