Description

A stylish and elegant Sheraton revival mahogany display cabinet. From the Edwardian period and of very high quality manufacture. Made from solid mahogany and decorated with inlaid stringing throughout. This cabinet boasts an array of interesting and impressive characteristics. It is unusual in that the two glazed end display sections are concave, contrasting with the barrel fronted convex shape of the cupboards beneath, this is a very unusual feature. The barrel fronted cupboard doors are decorated with parquetry inlay. The central section of the base has a single drawer above a cupboard. The glazed central door to the top section opens to access the shelved and lined display space. The cabinet is surmounted by unusual concave pediments to each end. The whole cabinet stands on square tapering legs united by and under-tier and conforming under-stretchers. This is a stylish and unique cabinet that would suit extremely well for the display of a collection of china or other items. It is offered for sale in very good original condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 122cms Depth 47cms Height 205cms
