Description

Fabulous Antique 3 Piece Bergere Suite in mahogany which is hand painted in the original Chinoiserie. It's in good original condition, dating to around the 1910 period & has just been completely re-upholstered in a cream linen fabric. This suite consists of a 2 seater settee & 2 armchairs. All the double cane is in good original condition. A lot of people seem to think this Chinoiserie furniture is Chinese, because of the decoration, but it is in fact English & was very much the fashion in the 1700's. This suite came out of a private London residence along with a pair of matching armchairs, a large display cabinet & various incidental furniture, all matching. It would be nice to keep it all together, but I appreciate the fact that not everyone will need it all. All the other items should be on my web site, unless they have been sold. If I was buying this set, I would take it with the 2 extra armchairs which are also on another page of this site, because the 5 pieces would sit very well together. This 3 piece suite is very comfortable, because all the cushions have been generously filled with feathers. It also sits on the original metal casters. Please note that the cush...
