Description

Pair of early C20th "Black Forest" carved miniature bears. Charming pair of carved linden wood (lime) bears, one seated on its haunches, the other rolled on its back, each supporting an original brass bowl. Well-carved and modelled with naturalistically painted mouths and teeth, fitted with glass-bead eyes (one missing). Minor chip to one foot. Probably conceived as ash-trays, and made and sold as tourist souvenirs from Switzerland. H and L 4" W 2" Switzerland or Bavaria c.1920
