Description

A really stunning example of an 18th century English general-purpose trunk in oak. It is of exposed dovetail construction with bold, handsome, typically-Georgian bracket foot supports. The lift up lid opens on its original wrought iron hinges to reveal a large single storage compartment. There is a working lock and key. This eye-catching coffer of long proportions is sometimes referred to as a sword chest. It dates from c.1760 to c.1790, is in superb condition, and has its original finish with a truly superb rich colour and patination. . . Width 48.5" (1230mm) Height 18.5" (470mm) Depth 18.75" (475mm) . . IF YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW MORE...
