Description

A fine quality Regency chest of drawers. Early 19th century c1820. This very handsome, imposing chest has a lovely, unusual drawer configuration, having three short drawers to the top, over three graduating long drawers, with a very sweet small drawer incorporated into the base. Having cock-beading to the drawers, with elegant turned bun handles. All locks and escutcheons are present, including the original key, which is quite unusual for a chest of this age. With superb rich figuring to the mahogany, with an excellent colour and patina. Standing on elongated, bulbous turned feet. In excellent antique condition, having general, but very minimal expected signs of age and use. Lovely characterful, warm patina. Very solid sturdy and strong. The dimensions are Height-107.5cm. Width-118.5cm. Depth-58.5cm. VIEWING. Viewing is available at our showroom in Kent, please contact us to arrange an appointment-thanks. COLLECTION.
