Description

Fine pair of unusual design early 19th century brass candlesticks, probably French. The round bases with engraved decoration. The stems are a very unusual design with reeded centre section and Greek key engraving near the top. Very good quality. One has been slightly repaired at the joint with a threaded rod and nut but it doesn't detract from what are a very nice pair of candlesticks. SIZE; 4" diameter bases. 8" high Part of a large private collection of early brass candlesticks recently purchased. More to come shortly.
