Description

Seriously stunning Edwardian earrings. At the top of the earrings is a trio of old cut diamonds set in platinum, from which dangles a diamond and pearl set bar. The old cut diamond of approximately just over half a carat is set in a square bezel, the sharp angles of which contrast stunningly with the organic shape of the button-shaped natural pearl. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30309736). Cut - The diamonds are old mine cuts. Colour - The two larger diamonds are I to J. The smaller diamonds are G to H. Clarity - The larger diamonds are SI1. The smaller diamonds are VS2 to SI1. Carat - Each of the larger stones is approximately 0.55 carat. The total estimated diamond weight across the pair is 1.64 carat. Circa - 1910. Measurements - The earring is 29mm long. Each of the pearls 7.3mm in diameter. Metal - The diamonds are set in platinum. The rest of the piece is in 18k yellow gold. Tested.
