Description

A pretty little Pembroke work table that is ideal for a lamp or beside a sofa or a bed. It is a useful table as the leaves, when open, provide a good area on which to put a tray or glasses etc It has 3 drawers; one at each end at the top and one full length double drawer at one end - see photos. The back (shown in the last photo) is the same as the front but the bottom drawer is faux. The top is cross banded and boxwood strung. The drawers are boxwood edged and have ivory escutcheons. The square tapering legs are also boxwood edged and terminate with little brass casters. It is a very pretty and useful item of furniture. When closed it is 50cm x 37cm (19.5 x 14.5") When open it is 50cm x 86cm) It is only 69cm (27") high which generally works well by a sofa or bed
