Price

SoldItem Reference: SA342255*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A very decorative pair of Arts and Crafts oak hanging wall panels dating from circa 1900-1920. The rectangular panels carved in low relief, the first depicting a hunter with a spear and dog and the second panel a farmer with a hoe and scythe both amidst scrolling tendrils. These two panels might once have served as doors of a cabinet. FREE delivery on this item (Mainland England/Scotland/Wales) – Just Add to cart and it will offer a free delivery option.
