Description

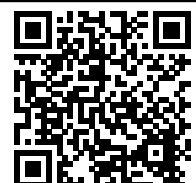

HENRI JACOT: a very fine quality late 19th century French CARRIAGE CLOCK of substantial size, by this eminent maker. The heavy "gorge" case is of excellent quality, as one would expect of Jacot, and it retains its original gilding. The 8-day movement strikes hours and half-hours on a gong ~ repeating hours at will ~ and it retains its original platform lever escapement. The white enamel dial is perfect as are the blued steel 'Breguet' moon hands, and it is signed with the makers trademark on the backplate. Perfect working order. The Jacot trademark is a parrot on a stand with the initials "HJ" either side. A "jacot" is French for a parrot, or "Pretty Polly".
