Description

Pair of early C20th Northern Italian inlaid walnut bedside cupboards in the late C18th style of the Lombardy region. Copies of an important pair of neoclassically-inlaid marquetry 'commodini' in the manner of the celebrated C18th Italian Milanese cabinet-maker Giuseppe Maggiolini. Inlaid and banded with kingwood, tulip-wood and various fruit-woods, raised on short tapering legs, each fitted with a single frieze drawer and cupboard. Tops and door fronts inlaid and banded with similar marquetry design within cross-banded borders, whilst the sides inlaid with vignettes of crossed torches. Excellent condition and colour, with no repairs or damage. A true pair with opposing opening doors. Quality gilt-brass fittings and key. H 28" D 15.5" W 19.5" Italy c.1920
