

SA344203

Joseph Horlor Fl1834-1866,
Fishermen by a Stream
PROVENANCE Agatha Christie

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA344203*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

Joseph Horlor Fl1834-1866 Fishermen by a Stream. Horror is not well documented but his work is of exceptional quality. He was born 1809 in Bath and is recorded as having lived in Bath and Bristol. Most of his pictures are of the west of England or the Welsh countryside. He exhibited at the British Institute from 1834-1877 and is thought to have died in 1877. A mixed gouache and watercolour picture of two fisherman by a stream. Provenance: The painting was lot 374 in the sale of Agatha Christies house Greenways 12th Sept 2006. The auctioneers were Bearnese of Exeter. A rare opportunity for an Agatha Christie fan to own one of the pictures from Greenways. Image size 6.5 x 5.5 inches

Seller Details

Timberhill Gallery

Bungay Suffolk United Kingdom

Tel: 07805 249 756

International Tel: +44 7805 249 756

