Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

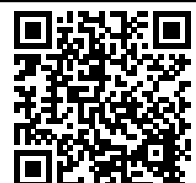

A gorgeous Victorian silver lidded vanity jar with repousse decoration and a vacant cartouche. The interior of the lid is fully gilded and there are pierced holes around the sides, suggesting that this was either a toilet water sprinkler or perhaps a pot pouree bottle. The jar is panel cut and tubular and would have come originally from a smart travelling set. A useful and decorative gift idea. P&P contribution £8.00 UK £14.00 Worldwide
Condition :- Excellent, with no dents to the silver and no damage to the glass jar. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- London 1899. Maker :- Drew & Sons. Height :- 15 cms. Diameter :- 4.5 cms.

Internal Ref: AC300
