

SA344487

Georgian Cornish Twin Fusee Bracket Clock

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA344487*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A good quality Georgian Cornish twin fusee bracket mantel clock. A mahogany case of good proportions with well detailed brass inlays. Fishscale side sound panels and glass back door. A cast brass bezel with convex glass to the dial with superb blued steel hands. A double fusee mechanism of 8-day duration striking the hours on a bell. Engraved border to the backplate and pendulum. Henry Harris of Truro is recorded in the 'Cornish Clocks and Clockmakers' book as working at 2, Lemon Street, Truro in 1823. Height 18" / 46 cms Width 10 1/2" / 27 cms Depth 6 1/2" / 17 cms

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281

