Description

A stunning French kingwood two drawer side table with Ormolu mounts and banding. This is a very fine piece of furniture and one of the best of its type, dating to the mid 19th Century it has obtained a beautiful colour and patination. Its shaped top with quarter veneered and banded with kingwood has ornate ormolu banding which sits over two fine mahogany lined drawers with ormolu escutcheons and twin pin locks. Being freestanding the side and back are as ornately decorated as the front with a four quality ormolu mounts to each support running down to the feet. Having a lower tiered shelve and raised on finely decorative feet this is a very handsome antique table indeed. Boasting a stunning colour this side table in showroom condition having been fully restored.
