Description

A large and interesting silk and embroidered picture of a Scottish scene. To the foreground are 2 spaniels and a gentleman in Scottish costume with sword and offering his hand to a lady to disembark a small boat. The mountains and lake painted in watercolour on silk. The figures, dogs, trees, rocks, boat and plants all embroidered. There are 3 or 4 minor splits to the silk but the colour is good and the whole is well framed. This picture is possibly pertaining to Walter Scott's Arthurian poem "The Lady of the Lake". Set around loch Katrine, Scotland in 1810. Size:- Width...31"...78.5cm. Height...25.25"...64cm. Frame depth...2.75"...7cm. Delivery to most of U.K. £35.
