Description

A superb French Chestnut Armoire. Late 18th century c1790-1800. This very charming armoire has an abundance of warmth and character, wonderfully rustic, yet still very elegant. To the top is a heavily moulded, protruding cornice, over a delightful carved motif, depicting naturalistic shapes and flowers in relief. The two doors, have lovely curvy, shaped panels, retaining the original and very ornate brass escutcheons, beautifully decorated, with elegant heads in profile, having pretty flower filled vases above each head. The heavy, solid doors open on their original hinges, to reveal an original shelved interior, giving ample storage. The shelves are removable, as they sit on wooden batons and simply lift out. With working lock and key. If required we are happy to add a wooden hanging rail. A pretty shaped apron and feet. Constructed from thick and solid timbers, with panelled sides. The colour is rich and warm, wonderfully patinated. Very heavy, sturdy and strong. The cornice lifts off. The main body does not dismantle. For ease of moving, the shelves are removable, as they simply lift out. The doors can also easily be removed, as they are on long pin hinges, which...
