Description

Be prepared to impress with this absolutely lovely oak and silver plated butter dish with carved panel. The butter dish itself is China and is hand painted with a picture of a hummingbird sipping from a flower. The dish is signed on the back by the artist. Maker is Grinsell & Sons and circa is 1890. Condition; There is some slight rubbing on the plate and some very minor staining on the dish but this does not detract from the beauty and quality of this piece. Base is 6 1/4". Height is approx. 4 1/2"
