Description

Antique Charles II coffer dating to c.1660. A fine example carcassed in robust, three by two, English oak framework, it is unusual, and a sign of quality, to have the back panelled as well as the facing sides. The three plank top displays wonderfully with rich, dark hues of russet browns. A triple field panel front complimented by double panelled ends, are surmounted by a carved frieze with ecclesiastical overtones in repeating gothic arched form. The lid lifts on iron strap hinges offering generous storage within and a candle box to one end. Superb period charm and in good antique order, this piece is delivered waxed and polished ready for the home.
