Description

This is a superb, silver sugar sifter. It is hallmarked London 1906 and has the maker's mark Haseler Brothers. The hallmarks are on the lid and on the base. This piece is adorned with swags and bows. The lid is beautifully fret and twists to open. Inside the silver there is a lovely deep blue glass liner to hold the sugar. Underneath the glass liner is marked with the number 77. A superb piece overall. Condition: The overall condition of this piece is exceptional. It is highly polished and there are no scratches or dents in the silver or in the glass. Overall measurements: 180mm x 80mm approx ENQUIRIES If you are interested in an item, please contact us by email or call us on 01394 387210. Our opening hours are Tuesday to Saturday 10am – 5pm.
