Description

A good quality and well proportioned 1920's walnut desk / Armchair by the famous maker Charles Tozer. This large antique chair has been upholstered in a hand dye leather with shaped back and walnut shepherds crook arms raised on cabriole legs having carved acanthus leaf to the knee. With great proportions and a generous seat this armchair can be used either at the desk or as a armchair and retains it original maker label to the underside of the removable squab. In excellent condition with a lovely colour and full leather. Charles Tozer was a retailer of high quality furniture specialising in walnut pieces in the early 18th century style. He was established at 25 Brook Street London from the early 20th century and was known for the quality of his workmanship and materials used.
