Description

17th Century Mirror, Shabby, Faded Louis XIV This is a very old and well worn piece, the wooden mirror frame was made before the French revolution, the frame has lost some of its lustre now but much of the gold finish is still visible and has never been refinished and it comes with its original looking glass. The mirror frame is carved and decorated with a Laurel Wreath and Feather Quills, the beauty of the original mercury glass enhances the look of this piece and despite the deterioration still has quite a large reflective area. The Back is original, there are a few very old worm holes so these have been treated to be on the safe side, otherwise the mirror is as you see it. The mirror Frame is 35" high, 19" wide, the glass is 19" high and 15" wide JC59 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, to see all of our current stock please visit our web site at www.elmgarden.co.uk Delivery times vary from 7 to 28 days.
