Description

We are pleased to offer for sale a beautiful pair of finely detailed coloured prints with gilt lined borders depicting countryside views. The first picture has cattle watering at a shallow stream and with a young child being helped over a fence by mother and sister. The second picture depicts an early thatched beamed cottage near a stream with the family standing against the fence and on a nearby bridge. FRAMES Both frames are very decorative and in lovely condition being made of mahogany. They are both gum tape sealed with clean hardboard panels to back and are ready to hang. The prints are preserved under glass in their original frames.
