Description

A fine quality antique 18th Century oak bible box on a later (probably 19th Century) stand, c1760. The box has very nice diamond-shaped inlay to the front frieze, plus 'pie crust' edging. The stand has lovely bobbin turned supports. The lock appears to be original, but the hinges look to have been replaced, probably in the 19th century. This is not unusual in a piece of this age. The colour/patina is good, as you would expect from a period piece, and there are no significant losses or defects. Overall we would describe the item as being in good condition commensurate with age and use and with only minor age related wear. Please refer to the detailed photographs and feel free to contact us with any questions or if you would like to view the item. This is a good example of a 'proper' and useful antique which would look great in any home. Size: 65 cm tall x 65 cm wide x 42 cm deep.
