Description

This lovely apprentice piece or shop model is nicely detailed and is in well patinated pale mahogany. The lower cupboard doors conceal a single, the frieze above is in fact a drawer. It contains a collection of sea shells. The top has 2 doors with simple glazing behind which again is a single shelf. This piece is in very original and good condition. 610 mm high, 355 mm wide and 215 mm deep. Circa 1860.
