Description

Very nice un-touched condition George III mahogany breakfast table. The whole piece is a gorgeous slightly bleached colour and has all its original patination having not been touched since it was made. The top with triple reeded edge has a boxwood line and rosewood cross banding. The base with reeded legs and original brass castors. Tips up beautifully with the original brass catch and as dry as a bone. Great colour and patination throughout. SIZE; 48" by 41" by 28 1/2" high
