Description

Bags of period charm to this Late 18th / Early 19th Century Antique English Georgian Copper Warming Pan, the cover pierced and engraved with an image of a bowl of flowers, the tulips a reference to the Protestant ascendancy, the engraving now faint from decades of hand polishing, but the Royal insignia, G R with a crown still clearly visible. A few minor splits to the pierced design, original baluster turned handle, probably of ash, and hanging ring.
