Description

The wool quality in this bag is amazing - front and back - easily mistaken for silk! It proves that some of the finest quality wool used in the 19th century and earlier amongst the Balch tribes, was the very best. The colours appear dark but in sunlight, they glow like oil floating on water! This bag has to be seen to appreciate the incredible quality and subtle vegetable colours. Size: 35cm x 28cm (14" x 11").
