Description

C18th George III period mahogany tripod base tip- top tea or supper table . Wonderfully original example on well-formed shaped tripod supports onto pad-feet fitted with original brass castors with 'lignum vitae' wooden wheels. The well-figured single-piece mahogany top having a 'gun-barrel'-turned 4-pillar "bird-cage" revolving action with original removable peg allowing the table top to be both revolved and also disassembled. The tilting top fitted with its original 'banjo' brass catch and brass 'keeper' to the block . 'Swollen' vase baluster column support with fine ring-turned detail . Excellent condition , cleaned and waxed ready to use. Rich original patina and finish. No breaks or damage , top with minor stains commensurate with age and use. H 29.5" Dia.34" England c.1750
