Description

In well figured mahogany with a top convex drawer and three others with ivory/bone escutcheons and working locks, this very pretty miniature chest of drawers, made in the 19th century, is in excellent condition having just been refreshed and waxed. These chests are sometimes referred to as "apprentice pieces" or "a salesmans sample" but they are more likely to just be decorative for keepsakes or small treasures and jewellery. Size: Width - 13.25" (33.5cms) Depth - 8.25" (20.5cms) Height - 12.5" (32cms)
