Description

Pair of antique leather upholstered mahogany curved back armchairs, which I believe date to around the 1910-20's period. They are in good condition & sturdy. The leather, which has a wonderful colour, is original & hand studded. There are no rips, tears or holes & they are nicely worn in. They are full of character. These chairs could be used either side of a partners desk, because they are the right height on the seats. Width - 23", 58 cm Depth - 27.5", 70 cm Height - 34.3", 87 cm Seat height - 18", 46 cm
