Description

An absolutely stunning perfume bottle, wonderful quality and in amazing condition. The quality glass is beautifully shaped and engraved with an Art Nouveau feel with floral panels running around the side. The hinged sterling silver lid is as pretty as you could find, the guilloche enamel being a deep lavender colour with a raised rim finished in black enamel. The silver is hallmarked for Birmingham 1924 with the initials for the maker, Henry Matthews. The original stopper remains intact. Exquisite in every way, standing 5 1/2" tall.
