Description

Lovely little 18th.c. North Wales oak Cwpwrdd Deuddarn or two piece cupboard c.1760. Typical of the form it has a small upper piece with two small doors and an overhanging canopy with turned drop pendants. This sits on a larger cupboard base which has a single plank top with a moulded edge and particularly good patina. Solid oak throughout with fielded panels to the doors on both sections repeated on the sides and (unusually) the rear. Excellent condition, with later knobs and floorboards. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Keys supplied for both pieces, the base section retaining a very old lock with its original key. Dimensions width 51", depth 21", height 55".
