Description

A fine mid 18th C Irish mahogany dropleaf dining table. This table is fantastic quality throughout, constructed in very heavy and dense Cuban mahogany retaining an excellent mellow colour. This is one of the largest tables of its type I've seen. The large oval flaps are supported on well carved cabriole legs. The legs with finely carved knees and ending with ball and claw feet with unusual pierced fallons. Size. 57 inches wide 23 inches deep (closed). 66 inches (open) 29 inches high
