Price

SoldItem Reference: SA355070*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

Although this pair of Arts and Crafts candelabra are not signed, they look very much in the style and design of pieces made by Goberg in the early part of the 20thC. Waxed iron flowers and leaves are shaped around a central branch which holds three candle supports with small spikes to hold the candles in place. They are lovely, unusual pieces, in perfect condition and have only been lightly waxed. They measure 43cm in length and approximately 31cm in width. We have included postage and packing within the UK mainland only, but will supply estimated costs for delivery elsewhere. Please contact us for further information.
