Description

Tiny Baluch rugs of this size are rare. Here we can see a miniature version of a full-size hearth-type rug of the Baluch tribes of Khorassan, north-east Persia and made during the last quarter of the 19th century. The rug is in very good condition overall with a very nice palette of indigo-blue in the central field and madder-red in the main border. Size: 1.22m x 0.65m (4' 0" x 2' 2").
