SoldItem Reference: SA356522*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

This is an absolutely delightful English rosewood card table in superb condition and dated to about C 1850. The card table stands on four beautifully carved feet above castors. The attractive rosewood veneers have mellowed over the years and the entire table retains a wonderful antique patination. The table top lifts and rotates, showing the original red baize of the card playing area....a storage area is also under the top. Shown here in our best showroom condition having been checked and waxed polished, this card table is ready to use.
