SoldItem Reference: SA357174*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A particularly fine quality late 19th century French CARRIAGE CLOCK by the highly regarded and well recorded maker: Alfred DROCOURT. The high quality case is of slightly exaggerated "Corniche" designed, with an inner gilded slip frame around the good original enamel dial. The 8-day movement strikes hours and half-hours on a gong, and repeats the hours at will via the upper button. Original blued steel "moon" hands and the backplate is signed with the Drocourt trademark and numbered 16450. This fine clock (which is in perfect working order) is also complete with the original numbered winding key and original numbered travelling case. *(The case number is to be found under the original retailers label for Grohe of Wigmore Street, London. See separate image.)
