UNUSUAL FRENCH ORMOLU & PORCELAIN MANTEL CLOCK

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA357966*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

An unusual and rather fine early/mid 19th century French MANTLE CLOCK in full working order. The case is of beautifully and very finely cast ormolu, with scrolls; stylised leaves and egg-and-dart beading. To either side are Corinthian columns which flank the gorgeous porcelain panel hand-painted with a scene of a shepherd in the Alps, tending his flock. The 8-day movement strikes hours and half-hours on a bell via the the count-wheel, whilst the 'moon' hands are original as is the engine-turned and gilded dial. Guaranteed at least two years. 16ins (40.5cms) high.

Internal Ref: 993/15
