A fine Regency bookcase

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA358295*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A very high quality example of a Regency bookcase in mahogany. The beautifully understated, simple design consists of a plain moulded-edge slightly overhanging top, beneath which are two banks of open shelves. The top oversails at the back to bridge any possible gap created by a skirting board. All eight of the finely reeded mahogany-lipped adjustable-height shelves are original. It rests on simple turned foot supports of a design so typical of the period. This useful floorstanding open bookcase is English, dating from c.1820s. . . Width 55.5" (1410mm) Height 63" (1600mm) Depth 12.25" (310mm) Depth of each shelf 9.75" (245mm) . . . THE NEXT STEP...
