Finest quality bentwood hat & coat stand

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA358728*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

A very fine quality late-Victorian/early 20th century bentwood hat and coat stand. The downswept supports, terminating in stepped feet, hold a central tapering four-column-cluster upright with eight dramatically scrolling hat and coat pegs. The column is surmounted by a beehive finial and there is a circular retainer for umbrellas and sticks. This beautiful example of a bentwood hat and coat stand is of the best quality we ever see. It has its original finish with a good depth of colour and a glowing patination and is presented in pristine condition. English, dating from c.1890 – c.1920. . . Width of base 23" (580mm) Height 78.75" (2000mm) . . IF YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW MORE...
