

SA361173

John Holbrook of Dublin circa 1829

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA361173

Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A fine quality flame mahogany 8 day longcase clock by Holbrook of Dublin. Maker: John Holbrook clockmaker, watchmaker, Dublin. Date: 1829 Height: 7ft 1" (with finial) Width: 18.5" Depth: 9" Price: £3,500 The high quality "Gentleman's Library" style case of typical Irish design, veneered in beautifully figured flame mahogany. The break arch hood with garrooned carved work, surmounted by a cresting with the 3 original brass finials. The original glazed door and cast brass bezel. The shaped top trunk door with choice curled mahogany veneers, flanked by canted edges. Old watch and clockmakers label to the reverse of the trunk door for a Dublin clock repairer. The box base surmounted on the original shaped plinth. The circular white enamelled dial signed Holbrook Dublin to the centre with subsidiary seconds zone. The high quality movement of eight day duration united by four knopped pillars, anchor escapement and striking the hours on a single bell. Original cast iron weights and brass bob pendulum with steel rod. Fine blued steel hands of spade design. All of our clocks have been sympathetically restored and have been expertly vetted for originality and good working ...

Seller Details

FJ & RD Story Antique Clocks

The Old Vicarage Highthorn Road Kilnhurst South Yorkshire S64 5TX
United Kingdom

Tel: 07899 751 446 or 01709 589 736

International Tel: +44 7899 751 446 or +44 1709 589736